DESSERT

Eugene Reullier Sauternes I Bordeaux, France

6.95 75cl
38.00

Noble rot. Botrytis cinerea. Necrotrophic fungus. Whatever name you give it, it's not appealing. A common pain for many vineyards, its arrival delights those involved in the sweet wine business as it removes water from the grapes thus intensifying the sugar and fruit acids. Sauternes makes some of the very best.

Chapoutier Bila-Haut Rimage I Banyuls, France

6.95 50cl
38.00

Red. Dessert. Wine. What is this madness? The perfect match for a chocolate dessert, that's what it is. 100% Grenache with a nose, metaphorically speaking, of black fruit and cocoa. This is backed up heroically by a sumptuous palate that the producer describes as 'greedy'.

Portal Moscatel Reserva I Douro, Portugal

7.50 37.5cl

Hypnotic, like Paul McKenna, and with a decent bit of age on its side, like Paul McKenna. Portal's Moscatel has superb layers of dried fruit and sweet tones, yet still maintains freshness, perhaps like Paul McKenna.

PORT

Cockburn's Fine Ruby I Douro, Portugal

75ml
Glass
4.50

Apparently there's an obvious double entendre with this historic Port house's name but we can't see it. Made from young wines spanning a variety of vintages, this is all about youthful bright fruit.

Kopke 10 Year Old Tawny I Douro, Portugal

75ml
Glass
6.00

From the greatest Port house you've never heard of. This 10 year old will do as it's told and not give you any back chat. The complex notes of sweet spice and rich dried fruits are a great match for anything from crumble to chocolate brownies. Served chilled as Kopke intended.
